

ACCIS/Mix Country 96 Showcase

“Silver Birthday Bash”

A concert to benefit Audrain County Crisis Intervention Services

Educate; Empower; Serve!

Who We Are

Audrain County Crisis Intervention Services (ACCIS) is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization, located in Mexico, Missouri, which seeks to put an end to domestic and sexual violence.

Services include emergency shelter, transitional housing, support groups, one-on-one peer advocacy, court advocacy, crisis intervention, hospital and law enforcement response, and other essential services. All services are free and confidential to those affected by domestic and/or sexual violence. ACCIS's mission is to “Educate; Empower; Serve!” and our vision is “To work with our communities to end domestic and sexual violence.”

Audrain County Crisis Intervention Services was incorporated on October 8, 1992. In 2006, ACCIS became a dual program, addressing the needs of both domestic and sexual violence victims. Today, ACCIS has eight full time staff and one part time staff, including the Executive Director, Residential Victims' Advocates, Court Advocate, Child Victims' Advocate, Equal Access Advocate, Sexual Assault Advocate and Volunteer Coordinator. ACCIS still operates a shelter to provide safety to women and children fleeing from homes with domestic or sexual violence. ACCIS also offers assistance to non-residential domestic and sexual violence clients through the outreach office.

How We Help

In 2016 alone, ACCIS served 887 women, children and men. ACCIS also provided 4,255 bed-nights to 179 clients, answered 477 hotline calls and facilitated 181 support groups. ACCIS also facilitated 59 trainings and community education presentations and was supported with over 3000 hours of volunteer services. ACCIS now reaches beyond the borders of Audrain County to provide assistance to neighboring counties including: Montgomery, Callaway, Randolph, Monroe and Boone.

About the Event

This year ACCIS is celebrating 25 years of serving victims of domestic and sexual violence. This special event is an opportunity to have a VIP meal and visit with some rising country music stars Dylan Jakobsen, Dave & Whitney, and Jason Pritchett and then enjoy the sounds of their concerts from your floor seats. All showcased in the comfortable amenities of the Gymtorium at Missouri Military Academy in Mexico!

How the event helps ACCIS

The event allows ACCIS to raise needed operating funds. Funds from this event will be used for support and continuation of services to those affected by domestic and sexual violence.
